QUESTION? time Past Simple

Except TO BE, CAN and some other verbs, you need HELP to make a question.

In the Present tense, you use DO or DOES.

Affirmative: YOU LIKE the film.

Question: DO YOU LIKE the film?

In the Past tense, you use DID (in all the persons, singolar and plural!)

Affirmative: YOU LIKED the film.

Question: DID YOU LIKE the film?

☞ Write DO, DOES or DID to make the sentence a QUESTION.

1 We play football every Friday. _____ you play football every Friday?

2 I went to school yesterday. _____ you go to school yesterday?

3 He wrote me a letter last week. _____ he write me a letter last week?

4 Cats love milk. _____ cats love milk?

5 My sister loves horses. _____ my sister love horses?

6 I studied maths all the afternoon. _____ you study maths all the afternoon?

7 We travelled to Rome last summer. _____ you travel to Rome last summer?

8 The car stopped at the red light. _____ the car stop at the red light?

9 I speak English. _____ you speak English?

10 I helped my mum with the shopping bags. _____ you help your mum?

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Transform the Present tense in the Past tense. Present ▶▶ Past

Do you like broccoli now? Did you like broccoli some years ago?

Do you speak English now? _____ two years ago?

Do you go to school today? _____ yesterday?

Do you play tennis today? _____ yesterday?

Do you like pizza now? _____ two years ago?

Do you go by car today? _____ yesterday?

Do you have a dog now? _____ two years ago?

Do you know the alphabet now? _____ two years ago?

Does it snow in May? _____ last January?

Do you understand it now? _____ before?

Do you have many tests this year? _____ last year?

LIVEWORKSHEETS