Using “because”

We use the word “because” to connect two phrases in a sentence. We never begin a sentence with the word “because.” Use the example to help you answer the questions below.

	Why is John eating chicken? _____John is eating chicken because he is hungry. _____
	Why is Angela crying?
	Why is the tiger happy?
	Why is the boy wearing a jacket?
	Why is Jose angry?
	Why is the teacher running?

LIVEWORKSHEETS