TOXIC

All my are toxic, all ambitionless So rude and negative
I need friends, but it's not that and easy
Oh, I'm , let me breathe

I'm off all by myself
Though I'm feelin' kinda empty without somebody Oh, I you cryin' out for help
But you never for me when I was ringin' cell phoneOh, don't know how it to be alone

Baby, oh, I'll make you know, I'll make you know, oh

I'm drowning, let me breathe
I'm drowning, let me breathe

But life is immaculate, backin' it up a bit Countin' my hours and on wood Avoiding my , chewin' on Had a bit time, but I should Be good for a , don't want to admit it
I'm on seconds, I'm rigid, I'm screwed

Don't know what to do, I'm of you
I'm up bottles and bottles of

I'm better off all by myself
Though I'm feelin' kinda empty somebody else
Oh, I you crying' out for help
But you showed for me when I was ringin' your cell phone
Oh, you don't know how it to be alone
Baby, oh, I'll make you know, I'll make you know, oh

I fell into your river
That's where you me lies
You said that I'd feel
But is where good guys die
You my pride away, but
You cannot take my I'll another way out
But now you're takin' my life
Don't see how I
