A quarter is worth 25 cents.
You can count by 25s to find out how much money you have in quarters.
25, 50, 75, 100, 125, 150, 175, 200...
A quarter is one quarter (¼) of a dollar.
Four quarters is the same as one dollar.

Count $1.00

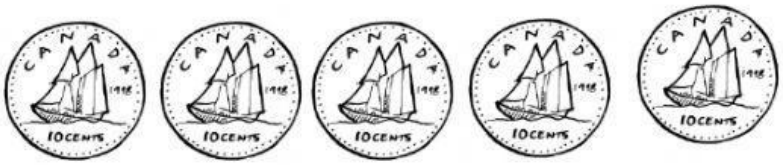
Count $0.50
(50 cents)

Count $0.75

A dime is worth $0.10 or ten cents
You can count by tens to find out how much money you have in dimes.
10, 20, 30, 40, 50, 60, 70, 80, 90, 100
A dime is one tenth of a dollar.
Ten dimes equals one dollar.

Count $0.50
(fifty cents)

Count $0.30
(thirty cents)



Count $0.10
(ten cents)

A nickel is worth $0.05 or 5 cents.
You can count by fives to find out how much money you have in nickels.
5, 10, 15, 20, 25, 30, 35, 40, 45, 50...
A nickel is 1/20 of a dollar or one out of twenty.
20 nickels makes one dollar.
Two nickels makes one dime

Count 0.20

Count 0.10

Count 0.25

A loonie is worth one dollar or one hundred cents.
You can count by ones to find how much money you have in loonies. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5...
Four quarters equals one dollar.
Ten dimes equals one dollar.
Twenty nickels equals one dollar.

Count
$1.00

Count
$2.00

Count
$3.00

Count
$5.00

A toonie is worth two dollars.
You can count by twos to find out how much money you have in toonies. 2, 4, 6, 8, 10...
Eight quarters make a toonie.
Twenty dimes make a toonie.
Forty nickels make a toonie.

Count $2.00

Count $4.00

Count $6.00