RMIT Classification: Trusted

Free Trade vocabulary review: Complete each sentence using a word from the table below

Free trade	Hazardous	collapse	Child labour	naive
deforestation	manufacturing	Win-win situation	Exploiting	Profoundly
Income inequality	scenario

1. _____ is the ability to sell or buy products between countries without restrictions.
2. Some claim that free trade benefits everyone and so is a _____ for all involved.
3. It would be extremely foolhardy and _____ for governments to claim that everyone benefits from free trade.
4. In the best case _____ everyone would benefit from Free Trade but that is simply not true.
5. To reduce their costs, many companies in developing countries like Australia and the USA have moved their _____ overseas where salaries are lower.
6. The writer overgeneralises when he claims that free trade has contributed to the _____ of the middle class in some developed countries.
7. The _____ chemicals of factories were contributing to water and air pollution in many developing countries.
8. Some multinational companies are _____ low skilled workers in developing countries by paying them a very low salary.
9. The writer argues that free trade has had _____ destructive results for both developing and developed countries alike.
10. The writer claims that Free Trade has increased _____ in many developed countries with the rich getting richer while the working class get poorer.
11. Mass _____ in some developing countries has destroyed the forests and land that provides food and water supplies for the local communities.
12. Some developing countries use forced labour or _____ in their factories where some workers are as young as 12 years of age.

LIVEWORKSHEETS