Name: _____

I. Right or Wrong. Read the following situation and check the laughing face  if it tells about obeying or check mad face  if it tells about disobeying.

1. You do not do what your parents ask you to do.
2. You raise your hand before you talk to teacher.
3. You yell at your friend because she doesn't want to share her toys with you.
4. You keep on running in the living room even Mom told you to sit and study your lesson.
5. You work quietly on your study area.

II. Check (/) the pictures with kids obeying rules.

Eating only sweets and fried foods.

Get up when it is time

Switch off the light when it is time

Scream at your friend.

Brush my teeth

Playing roughly.

Won't wake up my brother/sister

Listen quietly to a bedtime story

III. Multiple Choice. Read the questions carefully then type the letter of the correct answer.

_____ 1. If Mom and Dad tell you not to peek inside a gift, what will you do?

a.

b.

_____ 2. Mom and Dad tell you to study your lesson, what will you do?

a.

b.

_____ 3. God is happy when you disobey?

a.

b.

_____ 4. Our parents are older and wiser that's why they always tell us what to do.

a.

b.

_____ 5. If you do not agree with your parents, what should you do?

a.

b.

IV. Is this the correct memory verse for this week? Listen and check the correct smiley. If yes, check the happy face and if no, check the sad face.

"Children, do not obey your parents in the Lord, for this is just right." (Ephesians 1:6)

