Dependant preposition practice

1. I would prefer to go for a run rather _____ lie on the sofa.
2. What do you think about using Mihogar instead _____ Asevi?
3. I have everything on the order, except _____ the washing detergent.
4. The lorry coming by land should arrive sooner _____ the container coming by sea.
5. The strike has resulted _____ several orders waiting in the depot for over a month.
6. The cause _____ this situation is not really clear.
7. The back log of order has lead _____ a bottle neck in the logistics process.
8. The lack of supplies means _____ I can only serve locally produced products.
9. I need to find out more _____the situation and get back to you.
10. I was _____surprised I fell off my chair.

so that of than of than for in to about

LIVEWORKSHEETS