Plane'Jason Mraz

Drain the veins in my head
Clean out the reds in my eyes to get by
Dear machine
Pretend you don't know me so

I won't tell if you liedup
Drinkin' cause you're lookin' so in your Starbucks cup
I for the company that I keep
The windows for sleeping rearrange
And I'm
Well who's laughin' now

I'm your town again
And I'm over the ground that you've been
And I'm so baby hell yeah
Well Honey, I can see your house from
If the plane goes , damn
I'll remember where the love was found
If the plane goes , damn

Damn, I should be so
Even only 24 hours under your touch
You know I you so much
I cannot wait to call you
