When Paul and his classmates arrived at their hotel, they found some of the caves in their room. They looked very interesting and the next morning they got up early to go and visit them.

When they went inside the first cave, Paul was a little unhappy because it was very dark inside. But after a few minutes, he could see the old rock walls, but he was quite disappointed as there was not much to see.

Suddenly, Paul heard something above his head. But he did not know what it was. The noise became clearer and closer, he got really scared. Paul looked around and found what it was but nothing, ran out of the caves immediately but fell over and hurt his leg. It wasn't broken, but he couldn't walk. His friends were very worried and quickly rang his teacher, Mr. Park came to help and an ambulance took him to hospital.

Paul had to stay in hospital for a few days. The school trip was turned into the hospital trip. That afternoon, Oliver had another surprise. His teacher appeared! He brought something for Paul as well but it was some history homework! I'm sorry about your poor leg, Oliver,' he said, 'but make sure you do this before you come back to school
