An unusual sandcastle

1. Look at the story's pictures, read and choose.

What's in the story?

A sandcastle A kite

Where does the story happen?

At the swimming pool At the beach

2. Join the words with the correct pictures.

Summer camp

Competition

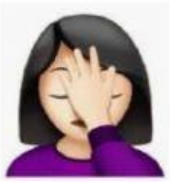
Team

Unusual

Oh, dear!

Winner

Shells



Flag

3. Listen and read the story.

	Ruby, Zack. Tom and Leila are at summer camp. - I really like summer camp. - I like all the different activities. - Yeah, summer camp is great. - What's today's activity?
	- Today's activity is a competition. - Oh, I like competitions. - Me too! - It's a sandcastle competition. Which team can make a really unusual sandcastle? - A really unusual sandcastle? Can we make a really unusual sandcastle? - Yes, we can. I've got an idea.
	- Where's the Heroes Team?
	- Hello, Leila. Hello, Tom. - Hi, James. Look, I'm making a bracelet. - And I'm painting a picture. - OK, but remember: you need to make your sandcastle.

	- Hello, Ruby. Hello, Zack. - Hi, James. Look, I'm fishing. - I'm snorkeling. - Remember: you need to make your sandcastle.
	- Hello, Heroes. - Hi, James. - Look, I'm making a sandcastle. - You've only got ten minutes to finish. - Oh, dear! - Don't worry, Ruby. We can do it. - Yes, we can do it. Come on!
	- The winner of the really unusual sandcastle competition is... The Heroes Team. - Our sandcastle is the winner! - Well done!
	- What a great team and what an usual sandcastle! It's got pictures, bracelets, shells, water and a fish and it's got a flag that says... - Have a great summer! - Ice creams for everyone!

4. Read and match. What are they doing?

making a bracelet

fishing

painting a picture

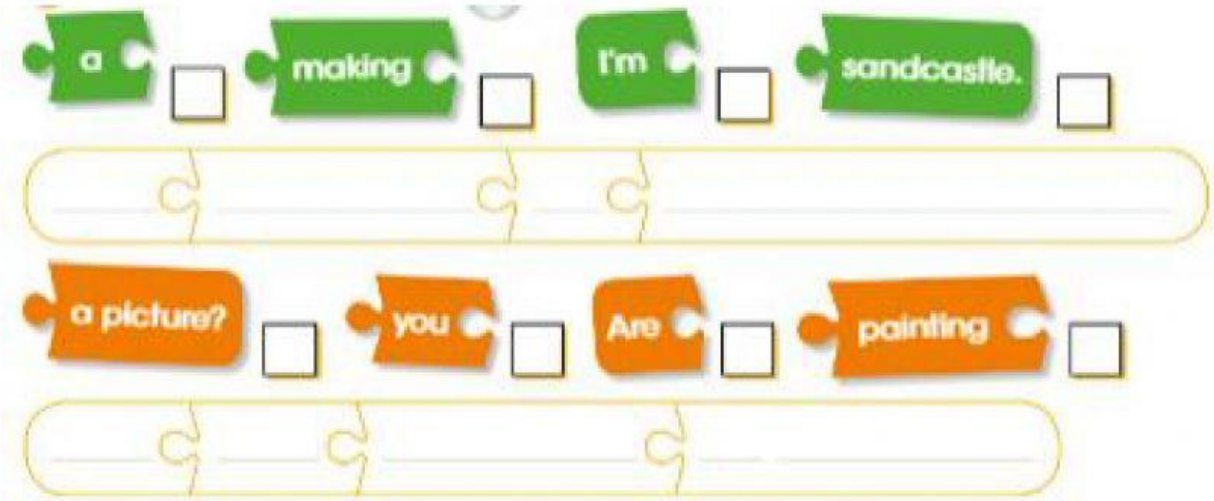
snorkelling

5. Read and choose.

Are you painting a picture?

No, I'm not. / Yes, I am.

Are you playing badminton?

Yes, I am. / No, I'm not.


6. Number and write in order.