Interview with Esther Armstrong, 94

Interviewer How do you spend your day, Esther?

Esther My day is very normal, really. I get up, I get dressed, I have breakfast. Then I go to work.

Interviewer To work? What do you do?

Esther I'm an accountant.

Interviewer OK, and why do you still work?

Esther To have an interest. Also, my job is quite exciting.

Interviewer Right, so what time do you start work?

Esther I start between 9 and 10 every day, and I finish at 4 o'clock. It isn't very stressful, really.

Interviewer You say you finish at 4. What do you usually do after work?

Esther I go out for dinner with friends once or twice a week, and we go to the cinema or the theatre, or to the ballet.

Interviewer That's nice. Do you live alone?

Esther Yes, I do. I have quite a big apartment and someone helps me with the housework for four hours a week. I do everything else myself.

Interviewer Right. Do you have children, Esther?

Esther Yes, I do. Both of my daughters live here in New York. One daughter works very near, and she comes and has lunch with me. And I work with the other daughter, so we eat together two or three times a week, too. I'm very, very happy with my life.
