DRAG AND DROP INTO THE CORRECT PLACE

Sam sat back in his seat and looked forward to having his lunch. He was having a great day.	While he was walking to the park Sam met two of his other friends and invited them along.	He was about to pay when he realised he had forgotten to take his wallet when he had left the house.	While he was waiting for a reply, Sam brushed his teeth, had a shower and got dressed.
1 It was raining outside when Sam got out of bed and looked out of the window.	James said he wanted to play football anyway and he didn't care about the rain.	While they were playing football, it stopped raining and Sam was really happy he hadn't gone to the cinema.	He was walking home, thinking about the goals he had scored that day, when he saw his mum drive past.
He picked up his phone and sent a text to his friend James: "No football today. How about going to the cinema?"	Sam changed his mind and decided to play too and left the house to join James in the park.	After he finished getting ready he checked his phone and saw that James had replied.	She saw him and stopped the car to give him a ride home. She had been working all morning but she was in a good mood.
After the game Sam went home. On the way he stopped at a shop to buy something for his lunch.	When they all arrived they saw that James had found some other kids to play with and they had enough people for a full match.	He apologised and left the shop. Sam was feeling hungry but he knew that he had plenty of food at home.	When they arrived Sam cooked lunch for the whole family.
