DRAG THE NUMBER OF THE EXAMPLE NEXT TO THE TYPE OF OBSTACLE TO OBJECTIVITY YOU THINK IT REPRESENTS (put the numbers in order if there is more than one number)

| | | | |
|---|---|---|---|
| The people from these islands believe in a god much like Apollo in shape and gifts but he brings knowledge instead of war.Julius Ceasar's History of British Islands | 1 | As a woman, she struggled to grasp the rational part of every debate and was constantly distracted by the emotional | 5 |
| Many things happened that day, but we will only discuss the response of emergency team D-33 | 2 | The job is open for all, but preference is given to those from the IPN because I think they are better. | 6 |
| For this report, we interviewed 1000 homeless citizens to find out about the national opinion of the pandemic policies. | 3 | We were kind to them and made sure they ate. Even if we had to break their teeth to put food in their mouths.Slaver captain's log, 1687 | 7 |
| Why don't you ask H? As a gay man, he must have impeccable taste and can help you decorate this room | 4 | It is sad to see how children are basically abandoned by their parents to be taken care of by a team of matrons. Even if the parents visit often, it's not a real family like ours. | 8 |

STEREOTYPE ____

PREJUDICE ____

TRANSCULTURALISATION ____ ____

BIAS ____ ____

TUNNEL VISION ____ ____

LIVEWORKSHEETS