TOPIC: SHOPPING VOCABULARY

You look at the L.....of a garment to get information on how to wash, iron it etc.

If you want to know how much a garment costs you look at the P..... T.....

When you pay in a shop, you pay the C..... and this person puts the money in the T.....

If something F..... you, it means it's the correct size. If you look good in something, we say it S.....you.

"Remember to keep the R.....because otherwise we will not be able to R..... you." One general condition when purchasing a product

You can find real B..... and buy much cheaper when the S.....are on.

A person who steals in a shop is called a S.....

The jumper cost $25 and only paid $20 so the shop assistant had mistakenly U.....me.

I can buy cigarettes, matches here. .....

I can buy meat here. .....

I can buy fresh fruit and vegetables here .....

I can buy bread, cakes here .....

I can buy footwear here .....

I can buy all types of office material here (pens....) .....

I can buy VERY OLD, GOOD QUALITY furniture here.....

I can buy new tables, chairs, sofas etc...here .....

I can buy magazines, newspapers here .....