

FUTURE

Be Going To

Examples

I'm going to be a teacher when I'm older.

He's not going to play football anymore.

Are you going to buy a new T-shirt?

Remember!

We use 'going to' to talk about our future plans, intentions, predictions.

I'm going to write my homework tonight.

They're going to watch a film this weekend.

Be careful!

You can usually make the negative in two ways.

He isn't going to ride a bike.

He s not going to ride a bike.

They aren't going to visit us.

They 're not going to visit us.

We say... We don't say...

I'm not going to read that book.

(NOT ~~I am n't going to read that book.~~)

She's going to have pizza for dinner.

(NOT ~~She's going to having pizza for dinner.~~)

Will

Examples

I will be a teacher.

He'll travel around the world.

You won't have any problems.

Will they come here?

Remember!

We can use will or 'll to talk about the future, the things that you are not sure, or make future predictions. For the negative, we can say will not or won't.

I'll live in a big house when I'm older.

She will have lots of pets.

Children won't go to school in the future.

We will not drive normal cars.

Be careful!

The main verb is without 'to'.

My friend will be a vet to help animals.

I won't forget my friends when I grow up.

We say... We don't say...

People will drive flying cars in the future.

(NOT ~~People will to drive flying cars in the future.~~)

I won't live at home when I go to university.

(NOT ~~I won't live at home when I go to university.~~)

My father won't be happy when he sees this broken window!

(NOT ~~Will the window be broken when he sees it? It will be broken!~~)
