What's the best way to take money when you go on holiday abroad? In the past, people (1) to carry traveller's cheques, but these days they are more likely to go with just a credit card. Cash is the simplest option but can make you vulnerable to theft. A credit card is one of the safest ways to pay for things abroad, but it can be expensive so you (2) check the information about bank charges before travelling. You also have (3) be disciplined. You don't want to still be paying for this year's holiday next year! Then there are prepaid cards. You just put as much money on them (4) you want to spend. But be careful when checking in to hotels or hiring cars. Money that is 'ring fenced' as a deposit will not be available to you until you check out or return (5) car. The best advice is probably to take a mix – cash, prepaid card and a credit card for emergencies.

B Complete the second sentence so it means the same as the first, using the word given. Do not change the word given. Use between two and five words.

We have to give a presentation about inspirational women. We are (1) women from any field – scientists, sportswomen, politicians or artists. I've decided to do mine about Serena Williams. I love watching tennis, but I think it (2) quite a boring job sometimes. You have to practise for hours on end just hitting a ball over a net. Serena grew up in a really poor neighbourhood and she (3) it easy, but her father was determined that she and her sister Venus were going to be great tennis players. She has won so many tennis tournaments now it's incredible. She (4) really hard to come back from her injuries. She's also interested in fashion and the arts. She will (5) a lot of work, but she could become just as famous for those activities in the future because she is so focused.
