ASKING FOR AGREEMENT

QUESTION TAGS WITH THE VERB TO BE

Remember, we use question tags to ask for confirmation when we know something is true.

Affirmative sentence	Negative question tag
You are American,	Aren't you?
Negative sentence	Positive question tag
You aren't American,	Are you?
Watch out!
I'm American,	Aren't I?

Read the sentences. Complete with the correct question tag.

Example:

Lisa is a student, _is she_?

1. James is playing soccer in the park,_____?

2. You are going to get up early tomorrow, _____?

3. Ana's house isn't small_____?

4. Mike and his friends aren't at the movies_____?

5. Cereal is her favorite food,_____?

6. I am a good chef,_____?

7. They are speaking English now, _____?

8. Katya isn't doing aerobics, _____?

9. We are good friends, _____?

10. James isn't a good singer, _____?