A Proud Boy

Boscow _____ ten years old. He ____ in Year 6. He _____ at SK Puchong. His hobby _____ cycling.

One day, he _____ around the neighbourhood. He _____ recklessly. He _____ so proud of his balancing skill.

Suddenly, he ____ over a stone and _____ to the ground. He badly hurt his left knee. He _____ for help. A few passers-by _____ the incident and _____ him to the hospital. The doctor _____ his wound and _____ his knee. Boscow _____ the doctor. From this story, I _ _____not to be proud just like Boscow.

(96 words)

A Birthday Party

This _____ Cyril. He _____ an Iban boy. He _____ in Year 6. He _____ at SK St. John.

He _____ his twelfth birthday last night. Many of his friends and relatives _____ to the party. His mother _____ him a tasty cake. She also _____ some food and drinks. Cyril _____ so excited.

After singing the birthday song, Cyril _____ the candles. He _____ to see all the presents. They the food and _____ some games together. The party before 9.00 pm. It _____ a great party. From this story, I _____ to be thankful just like Cyril.

(102 words)

At Old Folks' Home

Last Wednesday, the boy scouts _____ at the school. They _____ to visit the Old Folks' Home. A few minutes later, their bus _____.

They _____ the Old Folks' Home at 9.00 am. Soon, they _____ some chores. Marley and Harley _____ to collect rubbish at the yard. Some of them _____ the floor. Later, they _____ some songs to entertain the old folks.

Before going home, they _____ some presents to the old folks. They _____ glad to spend their time there. They really _____ themselves. From this story, I _____ to be caring just like the boy scouts.

(102 words)