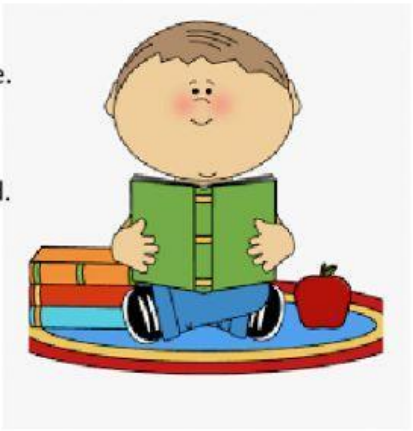
Connotation

Instructions: Complete each sentence below by choosing the word that has the most positive connotation. Look up for words in a dictionary for meaning of unknown words.



1. Marta is a little too _____ to go to the mall alone.
2. Kevin engaged in a political _____ with his friend.
3. Mr. Cravitz is a very _____ man.
4. Mrs. Keller was very _____ when she told me to be on time for class.
5. Who lives in this _____ cottage?
6. When it comes to money, Mrs. Dabner is very _____
7. Please get that _____ off my lawn.
8. The _____ from the refrigerator made me sick.

Instructions: For each pair of sentences, write a "P" next to the sentence that has a positive connotation and write a "N" next to the sentence that has a negative connotation.

1. ☐ Mr. Henderson is tight-fisted with his money. He is a penny-pincher.

   ☐ Mr. Henderson manages his money well. He keeps good records of his finances.

2. ☐ The rain fell down on the landscape like a gentle, timid mist.

   ☐ The rain pounded the land in angry violent torrents.