Dependent Prepositions 2

Drag the prepositions to the right place in the sentences:

1. Marion was sick, so she was absent _____ school.
2. This toy is suitable _____ children under 3 years old: it does not contain small parts.
3. Oh, no! I am late ____ my virtual lesson!
4. The interests of buyers and sellers are diametrically opposed ____ each other.
5. After all her hard work, she was absolutely satisfied _____ the results.
6. Terry is keen ____ sports: he watches every match and plays football and tennis as often as his tight schedule allows him to.
7. With this lockdown, many people are short ____ money and, even worse, short ____ food.
8. Lisa is terrified _____ spiders.
9. Tom is guilty ____ a crime: he is going to prison.
10. Some people are better/ terrible/ good/ bad _____ Math, but that does not mean it is a difficult subject.