

Unit 1

when you have the right or opportunity to use or see something to decide something after studying all the information about it very carefully to study a subject to find information about it to use something such as a product, energy or fuel the amount of crime that happens in a place or during a period of time the habits, traditions and beliefs of a country, society or group of people including many different types the situation that you live or work in, and how it influences how you feel a quality or important part of something to become older or an adult to have the right or opportunity to have, use or see something to pay no attention to something or someone the effect that a person, event or situation has on someone or something money that you earn by working, investing or producing goods with a lot of factories to affect or change how someone or something develops, behaves or thinks the appearance of an area of land, especially in the countryside the way that you live someone who lives in the area you are talking about a way of measuring something the food that you eat and the way that it affects your health the final result of an activity or process to give someone or something a position in a list which shows them in order of importance or quality something you say, feel or do because of something that has happened the opinion that people have about someone or something based on their behaviour or character in the past things that a country, person or organisation has which they can use

If you are short of something, you do not have enough of it.

the position that you have in relation to other people because of your job or social position to be or go everywhere around something or someone to often be in a particular state the manner in which a person lives