CHILDREN 4 PRACTICE 3 MID YEAR EXAM

1. Read and answer:

Claws was an Indian tiger. He lived in the forest. That day it was a sunny day. He was not a coward. He was good at climbing trees and fighting against dangerous animals. But he was afraid of humans. On his way to the lake he saw a hunter – a dangerous man with a rifle. So Claws stood behind a tree very quietly. He saw the man but the man saw him. The man's mouth was open. He wanted to shot but he couldn't. The hunter didn't move. The tiger thought the man was scared too.

1. Where was the tiger from?

_____

2. What's a hunter?

_____

3. What was Claws afraid of?

_____

4. The hunter shouted. ✓ or ✗ ? ☐

5. The man was not a coward. ✓ or ✗ ? ☐

2. Read the text and complete the blanks with the words in the box:

OF	FEELING	BECAUSE	COULD	ABLE	EYES	SHOULD
THEY	THERE	DID	LOT	THERE	FOR

The man was _____ nervous because he didn't know how to use the rifle. He was afraid _____ the tiger that was standing behind the tree. When the tiger decided to go straight to the lake, the hunter couldn't believe his _____ . He felt much better. On his way to the lake the tiger got lost and went to a campsite. How _____ he get there? Nobody knows. _____ were many tents and a_____ _____ of people. He stayed there for a short time _____ he didn't like being with people. He thought _____ were crazy. They were all tuning and shouting. Claws was _____ to run away from that campsite. He thought, "I _ _____ go home now. This place is very dangerous."

3. Circle the right one:

Lynn helps you with your problems. Have you got one? Write to Lynn.

Dear Lynn,

I live in the forest in India. I like / likes playing but I have not / don't have many friends so I usually walk in the forest. My mother always is saying / says that I have to be careful with humans. Last week I went / go to the lake but on my way I met / am meting a dangerous man. He has / had a rifle. He looked confused. Perhaps he was / were scared. This man cannot talk / couldn't talk and he didn't run away / isn't running away. Then when I was walking / am walking into a campsite everybody started to shout. Why did you think / do you think they did that? Isn't it strange?

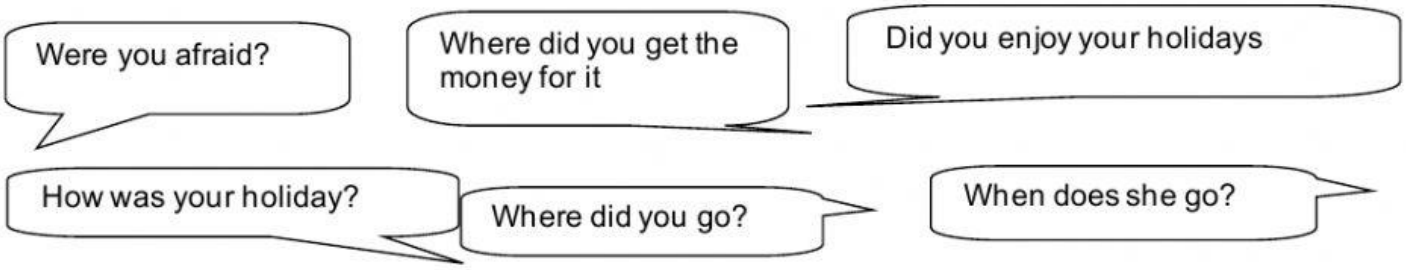
I want to make some new 'human' friends. Should I stay always my mother always says?

Claws

4. Complete the dialogue with the bubbles:

Jenny: Hello, Sam.
Sam: Hello, Jenny. _____?
Jenny: It was fantastic!
Sam: _____?
Jenny: I went to India.
Sam: Oh, really?
Jenny: Yes, and it was a camping holiday.
Sam: Wow. _____?
Jenny: Yes, of course. One day a huge tiger appeared near my tent.
Sam: _____?
Jenny: Yes, I thought he was going to attack us but he didn't.
Sam: You were very lucky.
Jenny: Yes, these were my best holidays. Look what I bought.
Sam: _____?
Jenny: Well, I saved my pocket money.



5. Match:

A	B
1) Was the food OK?	___Six days.
2) How long did you stay there?	___Four pounds a week.
3) Trick or treat?	___Because he is older than you.
4) How much pocket money do you get?	___Here have some sweets.
5) Why does he get more money?	___It wasn't bad.