C1 Advanced
- Writing part 2 -

Write your answer in 220–260 words in an appropiate style.

The company you work for has recently acquired another company in a foreign country. Some workers from that country will come to your office to learn how to do things according to the company's policies and standards.

Your manager has asked you to write a proposal explaining what could be the best training for these new employees.

Write your proposal.