How have computers, ___ internet, email and ____phones changed your life? Have they changed the way we ____business? Are there good and bad things about technology? This is the ____frequently asked question. What do you think about it?

Most people say technology has made our lives faster and very convenient. I may ___agree with this fact. Technology is the thing ____has also made us very lonely. We interact with machines for 8-10 hours ___day and spend ____than 2-3 hours interacting with other humans.

It seems to me that technology is ___easy way to find any information you want. It allows me to find out what ___really happening in the world, not just what the media want me to believe. And I don't have ___ spend so much time to do it. ___ problem is that some governments ___to control what is available ___ the internet too.