Confusing Words

Choose the correct word.

1. Many people find classic/classical music relaxing.
2. Star Trek is a classic/classical science fiction series.
3. The first manned flight to Mars will be a historical/historic moment.
4. Spain has a lot of historical/historic buildings.
5. The prisoners were treated humanly/humanely while they were under arrest.
6. The prisoners tried everything humanly/humanely possible to escape.
7. Raising taxes is an economic/economical decision.
8. It is more economic/economical to buy books online.
9. There are lots of languages beside/besides English that you can study.
10. She sat beside/besides her mother at the family meeting.
11. The party was fun/funny last night. I really enjoyed myself.
12. The film was fun/funny last night. I couldn't stop laughing.
13. I don't want any more/else.
14. I would like something more/else.
15. The company is going to rise/raise their prices next week.
16. Prices are going to rise/raise next week.
17. She is leaving to bring/fetch her children home from school.
18. She is going to bring/fetch her children home on the way back from work.
19. People borrow/lend books from the library.
20. The library borrows/lends people books.