GRAMMAR CHECK

can, can't and must

We use can + infinitive without to to talk about things that are possible, or that we are able to do.

Can we go with them?
You can live with us, too.

We use can't + infinitive without to to talk about things that aren't possible, or that we aren't able to do.

Smee can't see Hook in the fog.

We use must + infinitive without to to talk about things that we have to do.

You must stay with the boys.

1 Complete the sentences.

a I ...can... teach you how to fly.

b Now I ..... kill Wendy.

c Our mother leaves a window open for us, so we ..... go home one day.

d We ..... listen for the drums.

e Wendy ..... be our mother, but the boys are going to die.

f I ..... save them. But first, I ..... take my medicine!

g I ..... fly to the ship. The pirates could see me.

h Six of you ..... walk the plank, but two of you ..... live.

i I ..... win now.

j Wendy ..... come home now. She ..... stay with me.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

2 Match the sentences in Activity 1 with these events.

H	1 Hook says this to the Lost Boys on his ship.
	2 Hook says this to the pirates after they catch the Lost Boys.
	3 Hook thinks this when he's fighting Peter.
	4 Peter says this to Tinkerbell before she drinks the poison.
	5 Peter says this when the pirates attack.
	6 Peter thinks this after Tinkerbell closes the children's window.
	7 Peter says this to Wendy in the children's room.
	8 Wendy says this when she tells a story.
	9 Peter thinks this before he goes to the pirate ship.
	10 Tinkerbell thinks this after the pirates shoot at them.

LIVEWORKSHEETS