First Conditional and Future Time Clauses

Choose the correct option to complete the chat: present simple, imperative, or will+ infinitive.

Annie – 20:05
Katie! How's it going? I'm studying so hard, but I need a break. Do you want to meet tomorrow evening? We could have a pizza and a chat.
I _____ you tomorrow when I _____ home, OK? xx

Katie – 20:08
Hi, Annie! I'm studying too!! My history exam is tomorrow afternoon. I'm really worried about it. OK for tomorrow evening, but not too early. I _____ you a message when the exam _____. xx

Annie – 20:09
OK. _____ come to my place as soon as you _____. We can phone for takeaway pizza :)

Katie – 20:10
OK. But _____ the pizza place until I _____ there. I might be late.
I've been thinking, if you _____ free when all our exams _____ over in a couple of weeks, why don't we go away somewhere to celebrate?

Annie – 20:11
Great idea! We could go away for a few days to relax! But I _____ to go away unless I _____ all the exams :(
We can talk about it when we _____ each othe tomorrow night. xx

Katie – 20:13
OK. Time to get back to work. If I _____ a bit more tonight, I _____ any chance of passing history tomorrow. Wish me luck!! xx

Education Vocabulary

Move the words and drop them in the correct sentence.

CHEAT EDUCATED REVISE FAIL BE EXPELLED PASS BEHAVE TAKE BROUGHT UP

1. If you badly, the headteacher will call your parents.
2. He studied a lot, so he'll probably all his exams.
3. She was by her grandparents in Oberá.
4. I never in exams, I'm afraid of getting caught.
5. We won't this test. We've worked really hard!
6. Sally was at a religious school.
7. You might if you do something terribly wrong at school.
8. Can you help me for my English exam?
9. We have to an important Physics exam tomorrow. We're so nervous!

Write numbers from 1-5 to order the following education levels.

a. College

b. Kindergarten

c. Middle School

d. High School

e. Elementary School