WHAT WAS OF Prometheus?

Connectors:

So - However - Even though - After

You had no real knowledge. So, you could not make a wise decision. → result?

Even though I never lied, the Inspector didn't believe me. ← contrast?

Complete the sentence with the right connector.

1. The phone woke me up. Even though/ So, it was not that loud.
2. People know me somehow. So / Even though, I never met them.
3. Germany viewed the Russian movilization as an act of war. Even though, Germany declared war on Russia.
4. Cynthia forgot the matter in a matter of seconds. So / Even though, Carlos felt that his world was crushing down.
5. Gaston seemed to have his thoughts together. Even though, / So, his mind was long gone.
6. The Storm made the forest pitch dark. So, Even though, searching was useless until it passed by.
7. Karla will learn quickly enough. Even though, / So, she is young and unexperienced.
8. She slowly walked through the corridor. So, Even though her insticts were telling her to run away

Time connectors

1. Finally / After we will visit Athens and stay there a whole week.
2. Even though / Firstly, I remembered theingredients and the recipe started coming to me naturally.
3. After / Firstly, I present a brief history about the cold war that will take us to the 90s millitar conflicts.
4. Firstly / After, economy differs in every country, we cannot normalize the situation.
5. After / Firstly, I finish this project, I will go to sleep.
6. Finally / Firstly, to conclude my speech, I would like to thank my parents for their support.
7. _____ they arrived to the island after swimming for one hour.
8. _____ it rains, I like the smell of the air.
9. Firstly / After the methodology behind the diet stipulates that overeating is an emotional issue.

Connectors:

After I took the train, I waited for an hour to get home.

result / direct event

First action of a process

Firstly, my reseach has been aimed to explain certain topics related to China's economic issues and how to answer.

Final sentence

Finally, to add up to my statement, I would like to say that climate change has had a great impact on the life of the insects of the desert.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

WHAT WAS OF Prometheus?

(1)_____ Zeus defeated the Titans, Prometheus, the titan in control of foresight, and his brother, Epimetheus, were on the side of the Greek god. (2)_____ the two of them were titans, both of them considered Zeus as an ally and fought alongside him against their kin. (3)_____, a thankful Zeus provided them the task of creating all living things. (4)_____, they brought about not only life but also gifts that belonged to the living beings, allowing them to perform incredible feats and to be unique on their own.

(5)_____, Prometheus took special care when giving form to humans, allowing them to look alike Greek gods. (6) _____, he could not grant them divinity because the gods thought of humans as worshipers and dependent of the gods' intervention. (7)_____ seeing the treatment his children received by the deities, he turned to the sacrifices that were meant to be made and tricked the Zeus and his kind by giving the meat to the humans and the remains to the gods.

Zeus found out the trickery that Prometheus played on him and forbade the use of fire for any purpose whatsoever. Prometheus, realizing his mistake, climbed up Mount Olympus and took the fire that belonged to the gods with him hidden in a fennel stalk. So, he brought the fire back to mankind, allowing them to seize control of the natural order. (8)_____the fire came to humans as a way of care and protection, it was unfortunately also used as a tool for war and conflict.

(9)_____, Zeus looked at humans and witnessed that they possessed fire once again. Enraged, Zeus punished Prometheus by chaining him to a rock and allowed a vulture to feast on Prometheus' liver every day. (10)_____ Prometheus suffered an excruciating agony every day, he never regretted his acts of rebellion. His acts made him seen as beloved in the eyes of humans, who cherish his acts which gave us hope for the future and freedom from the Greek deities.

LIVEWORKSHEETS