B11. Textbooks and exercise books are becoming them things of the past. In fact, they

B12. already are at some Dutch state schools. The Netherlands which has several 'digital

B13. schools' where all the pupils' learning takes it's place on tablet computers. Although

B14. there are teachers who in every classroom, their role is a supporting one. One of the main

B15. advantages of the system is that it enough allows the pupils to work at their own speed

B16. in so various subjects. That means the most talented pupils can quickly move on to

B17. advanced work, while those who struggle with a subject can spend once more time on

B18. the basics. Not all teachers are pleased about the move to these digital education,

B19. however. Some have pointed out that computers can never to replace human beings

B20. completely because they can't respond themselves to children on an emotional level.
