REPORTER: Miley, _____ I ask you a question?

MILEY: Yes, of course. But I _____only stay for a couple of minutes; I've got a date at 22hs.

REPORTER: I know, getting to date you _____ be really difficult!!!

MILEY: Well, it _____ be… or not! Ha-ha!

REPORTER: You're right! Now, Miley, tell us about your beginnings. How did you start your career?

MILEY: Well, I _____ understand how I got here, really. My mom says I _____ already sing and dance at the age of 4, and that's how it really started! She always tells me that I used to ask her "Mom, _____ I go and sing at the theatre?"

REPORTER: You obviously didn't need to raise your self esteem!!

MILEY: No, no. I've always known that I am a gifted person. We all have to know which are our talents and exploit them. Of course, not everyone _____ have my luck and charm…

REPORTER: Wow! You ____ be very proud of yourself! Or you seem to be…Miley, what are your plans for the future?

MILEY: I _____ bring out a new CD. But I'm not sure about that. I _____ also decide to take a holiday before that. It really stresses me out to work so much!

REPORTER: Do you have to work so much eventhough you are not in a tour?

MILEY: Definitely! I _____ practise a lot. My manager is terrible!! He is so demanding and strict sometimes! He _____ think I'm still Hanna Montana!

REPORTER: Well, that _____ be the secret of your success! Hard work!

MILEY: It _____ be darling! I'm a born-star. The only secret here is my voice, my looks, and my personality.