Spotlight 9	Word Formation
	Task 9117

Choose the best word building element or word to make sense of the sentences.

1. He looked _____happy yesterday because of the quarrel with his girl-friend.

2. When he came home, he _____covered a real mess in the kitchen.

3. The question seemed _____important to me and I ignored it.

4. His behaviour was at the meeting _____bearable he was drunk and was saying _____decent things to the women present. Many of them felt really _____comfortable in his presence.

5. Alas, the computer was _____connected and the lack of the Internet made us feel _____appointed because we had to finish the distant task but were really _____ in the situation.

6. Susan is an absolutely _____sociable person. She feels really _____easy in large companies.

7. Mike used to be very _____confident when he was younger, but with years he became quite sure in himself and didn't feel any _____comfort in _____usual situations.

8. Nobody likes _____honest people. They are usually _____attractive for the employers.

9. Seeing a(n) _____usual task of the exercised Max became _____organised and didn't know how to begin it.

10. Her suggestion seemed _____interesting to everybody. They thought it rather _____safe to start the trip to the jungle at 6 p.m.

After finishing the task, enjoy the view:

A foggy morning near Kolomna

LIVEWORKSHEETS