Grammar

Grammar Rule

When subjects are joined by “or” or “nor,” the verb agrees with the nearest subject.

Examples:

- Neither Shayma nor her mother likes going to the dentist.
- Neither the students nor the teacher knows if classes will be held on Saturdays.

Choose the right form of the verb

1- Jamal or Naser _____ (prepare/ prepares) the conference room each week.

2- His sisters or his mum _____ (run / runs) the dishwasher only when it is full to preserve water.

3- Neither Salem nor his friends _____ (unplug/unplugs) devices to save power.
