READING

Read the text where Mandy is talking about what she did last Saturday.

I love swimming! Last Saturday morning I had a swimming lesson at my town's swimming pool. After the lesson, I looked at my mobile phone. My friend Marissa texted me "Come to Ice Cream Café".

I don't know the centre because I am new here but the bus driver helped me. When I arrived at the café, I was surprised because Marissa wasn't there. There was just one waiter in the café and there wasn't any music. It was very boring! I wanted to phone Marissa but my mobile phone wasn't in my bag. So I went back to the swimming pool. Yes! My phone was there and I phoned Marissa. Guess what? There were two Ice Cream Cafés in the centre,

I went to the second café and I met Marissa and one of her friends there. That day, we ate a delicious pie, drank milkshakes and took some selfies. We had a wonderful time!

Hello! I am Tom and this is my family. This is what we did last Sunday.

In the morning, my sister Lisa helped mom with the house chores and emptied the trash bin. Then, my father was angry because my room was a mess so I tidied my room. After that we went to the supermarket, we bought some vegetables and other things. When we came home, my sister and I walked the dog. Later, my father and I washed the car. In the afternoon, I played video games and my little sister Jeanette met her friend to play with the dolls.
