

Hi everyone! Let's practise third conditional sentences. Are you ready?

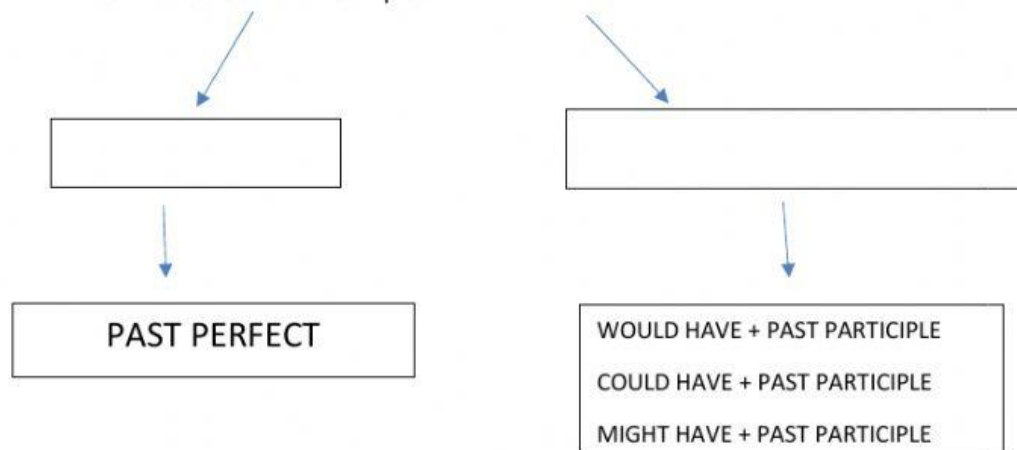

MAKING THE RIGHT DECISIONS

1- According to the video,

We use the third conditional to

Write true or false

- a- Talk about imaginary situations in the present.
 - b- To regret about the past.
 - c- To tell someone off about something the person/ people did in the past.
 - d- Imaginary situations and results- in the past.
 - e- Criticism / about the past /
- 2- To form third conditional sentences, we need to consider two parts / as in the zero – first and second conditional as well /. Complete.

3- Complete the sentences with the correct form of the verbs in brackets.

a- If you'd told me you weren't staying for dinner, I

..... so much food. (Not make)

b- We on time if we'd left half an hour earlier.

(arrive).

c- If we a table, we wouldn't have been able to have dinner there. (not book)

d- You'd have seen my message if you

..... your mobile phone. (check)

e- I'd have enjoyed the party more if the music

.....so loud . (not be)

4- Complete the second sentence so it has a similar meaning to the first sentence. Look at the example below.

- I got to the restaurant late because I went to the wrong place first.

If I hadn't gone to the wrong place first, I wouldn't have got to the restaurant late.

a- I passed my final exams, so I went to university.

I wouldn't have gone to the university if

b- Helen didn't have the right qualifications, so she didn't get the job.

If Helen had had the right qualifications,

c- We had lunch before we left, so we weren't hungry.

We would have been hungry if

5- Match the sentence halves. Write the letter as in the example.

Billy wouldn't have injured his head	D	A if you'd gone to university?
1 If I hadn't seen the speed camera,		B you wouldn't have caught a cold.
