The Beauty of Human Skin in Every Colour

Angélica Dass

1) Watch the video and complete the text with the following words.

TRANSCRIPT

Minute 6:15 to 7:12

portraits	eye	people
mirror	race	nationality	identities

All kinds of beliefs, gender, _____ or physical impairments, a newborn or terminally ill.

We all together build Humanae.

Those_____ make us rethink how we see each other.

When modern science is questioning the_____ concept, what does it mean for us to be black, white, yellow, red? Is it the_____, the nose, the mouth, the hair? Or does it have to do with our origin,_____ or bank account?

This personal exercise turned out to be a discovery.

Suddenly I realized that Humanae was useful for many_____.

It represents a sort of_____for those who cannot find themselves reflected in any label.