A few - A little

A few: unas/os pocas/os
(Countable things)

A little: un poquito de
(Uncountable things)

A few lemons

A little butter

Examples:

Can I have a little butter on my potatoes?
Tara is making some salad with some lettuce and a few tomatoes.

Choose "a little" or "a few" in the sentences.

1. There are a little a few oranges in the bowl.
2. There is a little a few butter in the fridge.
3. There is a little a few sugar we can use for the cake.
4. There is a little a few tomatoes on the table.
5. There is a little a few salt if you want to put in the soup.
6. There is a little a few cheese in this sandwich.
7. There are a little a few peas in the salad.
8. There are a little a few sausages in the cupboard.

Complete the recipe putting the words given in the blanks.

How to prepare jelly

A FEW A LITTLE POUR THE STIR

Buy a box of jelly powder, choose the flavour you prefer.

Peel an apple and slice it. Arrange _____ slices of apple at the bottom of different small bowls.

Put the jelly powder in a big bowl. _____ $\frac{1}{2}$ litre of boiling water in the bowl and _____ to dissolve the powder. Add $\frac{1}{2}$ litre of cold water and stir for some minutes. Pour _____ mixture in the different small bowls with the apple slices and take them to the fridge for a couple of hours.

Serve the jelly when it is ready. You can add _____ cream on top if you want.