Draw a line from the type of verb to the definition and the examples. (use the video for information).

Transitive verbs	A type of action verb that DOESN'T have an object on which the action is being performed She is painting right now.
Intransitive verbs	tells the state of mind of the subject or a relationship between the subject and the object of the sentence. She likes coffee.
Dynamic verbs	a type of action verb that has a definite object which the action is being performed She is painting the kitchen walls.
Stative verbs	connect the subject to a noun or adjective. (Also called "helping verbs") She is happy to help.
Linking verbs	shows action done by the subject of the sentence. She buys coffee every morning.

Drag the correct verb and drop it into the the box that corresponds with the correct verb tense. (use the video for information).

English verb tenses	past	present	future simple continuous
perfect
Perfect continuous

am studying

will have studied

had studied

studied

have studied

will have been studying

was studying

study

will be studying

have been studying

will study

had been studying