Characters in The Giver

Draw a line from the character on the left to the information that matches the character on the right.

Jonas		A mild-mannered, tenderhearted Nurturer who works with infants, he takes his job seriously. Even if he is attached to a child, he will release it if that seems to be the best decision…until he meets Gabriel
Lily		Jonas's best friend who talks fast and mixes up his words. He is assigned the position of Assistant Director of Recreation at the ceremony of 12's.
Jonas's father		The newchild that might have to be released until the protagonist's father takes him home. He forms a strong bond with the protagonist.
Jonas's Mother		She lives at of the House of the Old. She enjoys gossip and looks forward to her release.
Asher		She has red hair in which only Jonas can see.
The Giver		The eleven-year-old protagonist of The Giver. Sensitive and intelligent, with strange powers of perception that he does not understand. Chosen to be the new Receiver of Memory for his community when he turns twelve.
Fiona		She is a 7 years old chatterbox and sister to the protagonist.
Gabriel		A practical, pleasant woman with an important position at the Department of Justice
Larissa		The elected leader of Jonas's community. She shows genuine affection for all of the children at the Ceremony of Twelve, knowing of their names and an anecdote about each one.
The Chief Elder		The old man known in the community as the Receiver of Memory. He uses his wisdom to help the Committee of Elders make important decisions