

Choose the correct answers.

1.

There isn't a dog in the kitchen. There is a frog in the kitchen.

There aren't dogs in the kitchen. There are two frogs in the kitchen.

2.

There isn't a spider in the bathroom. There is a cow in the bathroom.

There aren't spiders in the bathroom. There are two cows in the bathroom.

3.

There isn't a cat in the garden. There is a tiger in the garden.

There aren't cats in the garden. There are three tigers in the garden.

Complete the sentences. (is, are, isn't, aren't)

1. There _____ a boy in the living room.

2. There _____ a dog in the living room.

3. There _____ two plants in the living room.

4. There _____ three sofas in the living room.

5. There _____ a cat on the sofa.

6. There _____ four tables in the living room.