Yesterday, today or tomorrow?

PAST TENSE
Verbs in the past tense show action that already happened. Most verbs in the past tense end in –ed, but others are irregular.
Mark walked home.

FUTURE TENSE
Verbs in the future tense show action that are going to happen. Sometimes, they add will to show the future.

Mark is going to walk home.

PRESENT TENSE
Verbs in the present tense show action that happens every day. Most verbs in the present tense end in –s or -es.

Mark walks home.

Tense	Key words
Simple Present	Every day, every month, every week, every year Always, sometimes, never, often, usually, frequently Once a week, once a day, once a month, once a year
Simple Past	Yesterday Ago a year ago, years ago, a week, ago weeks ago, months ago, days ago, hours ago In (past year); in 2019, in 1933 Last month, last week, last year, last century
Simple Future	Tomorrow, tonight, this month, this week, this afternoon, this year; someday In (future year, month, week); in a month, in a week, in two days on (future day) Saturday; next (month, week, year, name of day) Five days from now, three months from now, six weeks from now, two years from now

Write the verb in the blanks that correctly completes the sentences below. Look for the key words.

1. We _____ English lessons at 11:00 every Monday.
takes
taken
take

2. My friends _____ a new shop last year.
open
are going to open
will open
opened

3. Tomorrow, my family and I _____ the art museum.
visited
are going to visit
visits
visiting

4. Some day, laptops_____ old fashioned too.
seem
seemed will seem

5. The iPad _____ an important invention in this century.
were
was being

6. The internet _____ invented in the 1990s.
is
am
was
is going to be

7. Next week, the principal ..... to our class.
talk
is going to talk
talks
talked

8. My mom never _____ my room.
clean
cleans
cleaned
is going to clean my room

9. I _____ all continents in five years.
visit
visits
visited
am going to visit

10. Marta _____ her arm last month.

break
breaks
broke
is going to break

11. I _____ 2 kilometers every day.

walk
walks
walked
walking

12. We _____ this ice cream after dinner.

eats
are going to eat
eating

13. Maritza and her family _____ lunch in a fancy restaurant two days ago.

have had
has
are going to have

14. Last night, we _____ groceries because we 15. _____ a party tonight.

buy
bought
buys
are going to buy

having
had
has
are going to have