.Complete the sentences with suitable words from the table on page 20. Make any necessary changes.

1 .When you translate a word in a sentence, pay attention to its _____; otherwise your sentence might be incomprehensible.

2 .Writing more than the required 120-140 words for the essay is _____ and can lead to grammatical mistakes and wasting time.

3 .The teacher asked the students to read the _____ and translate it into English.

4 .The frst thing you do when you buy a new smartphone is to download and _____ various apps that will enable you to hear music, play games, and be part of social networks.

5 .If you want to understand what this _____ means, read the whole sentence rather than this group of words, which is only a small part of the sentence.

6 .Working in the hi-tech industry is rewarding, but it also has its _____, like working late and not having time to spend with your friends.

7 .I hope this medicine will _____ your pains. I don't want you to suffer.

8 .There are _____ changes in our initial plan for the trip, as it is going to rain tomorrow.

9 .The police didn't have _____ proof that the young man they arrested had committed the crime, so they released him.

10 Please confirm that the information you provided about the accident is _____ and that we can rely on it..

11 . It was a formal meeting and he was _____ dressed for it. Instead of wearing a suit and tie, he wore casual clothes.

12. He _____ that renovating his new apartment would not cost too much, but he was wrong. The actual cost was higher.