Lesson 3

What have you never done?

- Talk about things you have never done in your life.
- Use the Present Perfect to talk about experiences and accomplishments.

Read & Complete

Read Marla's letter and fill the blanks with the correct form of the verbs.
How many interesting experiences has Marla had in China?

Hi Mike!
I'm so excited to tell you about my trip to Beijing. It was incredible, and there are so many new things I've (see) _____. I've (see) _____ an amazing acrobatic show and tried the famous Peking Duck. I took a bus tour and I've seen the Great Wall of China. I've (visit) _____ the largest temple in China, the Temple of Heaven. I've (attend) _____ a tea ceremony and had a traditional Chinese lunch at Prince Gong's mansion. I've (take) _____ a tour of the old and narrow streets of Beijing by rickshaw. I've also (visit) _____ the home of a real Chinese family and finally, I've (climb) _____ to the top of an old drum tower.
I wish I could tell you more, but it's just so overwhelming!
I'm sending you some photos I took there.

Marla

Write It Right

Correct the mistakes in these sentences.

1. Marla hasn't see the Great Wall of China.
   _____
2. Marla has visit the largest temple in China.
   _____
3. Marla have climbed to the top of the tower.
   _____
4. Marla hasn't take a tour by rickshaw.
   _____

Focus on Grammar | Present Perfect Simple (Revision & Expansion)

It's formed with have + verb in Past Participle.
We use the Present Perfect to talk about:

- Unspecified time before now. e.g. I have cleaned the house.
- Experience. e.g. He has never been to China.
- Change over time. e.g. She has learned English since she moved to the USA.
- Accomplishments. e.g. Men have built a space station.