I was sitting at a shelter , watching my favourite community cat, a tabby boy walking along the pathway just keeping to himself.
From far, I saw a family of 4. Parents and 2 kids walking towards my tabby boy.
Within seconds , the Father of the family started running from where he is and landed with a loud jump causing the poor cat to jump and run in fright. He was easily over 90Kgs.
The entire family started to laugh as if it was the funniest thing ever.
I immediately got up and confronted the Father . I told him, " that's not a very nice thing to do you know ? " he walked pass me and simply said " ok" in a sarcastic way.
I then told him I would report him to SPCA .
The whole family totally disregarded me and continued walking to the car.
I pity the children, for having such brainless and uneducated parents .
I know this definitely cannot be the first time , I'm not sure if I should leave it as it is or I should report this matter to SPCA. Any help is appreciated , thank you.

PS. If there are comments saying that it's unfair/considered doxxing . I'll just ignore you.

The only unfair part of this situation is that poor animals are exposed to danger 24/7 while idiots like these can shamelessly abuse animals with no remorse. Even worse, they don't get any [redacted]

Had my 2nd dose of Pfizer Vaccine this morning at 11.30am. Reached Sunway Convention Center before 11.00am and by 12.00 noon everything was done!
The process was faster than the 1st dose. Kudos to the Pusat Kesihatan Petaling Team!! Well managed, efficient and friendly team. So happy to see my Muet sister K[redacted] in the hall too. Less nervous this time as K[redacted] was with me till we completed our jab. I was chatting with the friendly nurse who helped to take my photos that I didn't felt the needle until it was over!!!
Alhamdulillah didn't have any dizziness during the 15 minutes wait. Took photos...a must do, of course!!
It was indeed an experience of a lifetime!!
So far, no fever but slight dizziness and a sore arm. Taken panadol already and drank lots of warm water.
