- 1 Students and teachers at Grange Secondary School in the village of Hepworth near Dundee were unable to get home last night because heavy snow was blocking the roads. 'We had to sleep on the floor – it wasn't very comfortable,' said 13-year-old Jamie Banks. But it wasn't all bad. 'The teachers let us play games on the school computers,' Jamie added.

- 2 Icy conditions were still causing problems all over the country today. However, in the north of England some students were celebrating when their school was closed because of the bad weather. 'This is great! Now I can go and play snowballs with my friends,' said Jessica Watson, a Year 8 student from Durham.

- 3 A student from Mortimer School, Coventry, has come first in a national photography competition. 14-year-old Lucy Preston used her mobile phone to take her winning photo of a frozen lake in winter. What is she going to do with her £500 prize? 'I'm going to use it to buy a camera!' she laughed.
