

UNIT 7 - GROWING UP

Read the text below and sequence the life events of Sultan Kosen.

The World's Tallest Living Man

The world's tallest living man is Sultan Kosen. He was born in 1982 and he grew up in Mardin in south-east Turkey. When he was a boy, he went to school near his home. But he left school early because it was difficult for him because of his height. He went to university and didn't get a qualification. After school, he travelled and he worked from time to time as a farmer.

He first became famous in 2009. This was when he first got the title of "The World's Tallest Living Man". In March 2014, he visited Australia, and in November 2014, he travelled to London and he met the world's shortest man at the time - Chandra Bahadur Dangi from Nepal. Sadly, Chandra died in September 2015.
