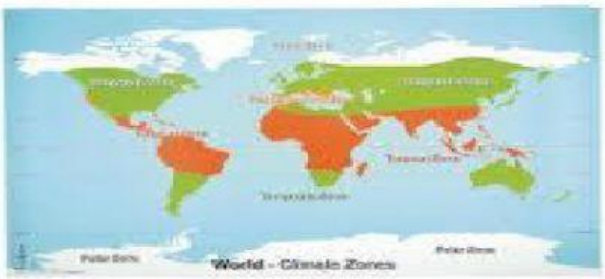
Climatic Zones

1) A climate zone is
   a) Something on the air conditioner in my house
   b) An area/region that shares the same climate features
   c) A special defense in basketball

2) The temperate zones are between the Equator and the Tropics.
   a) True
   b) False

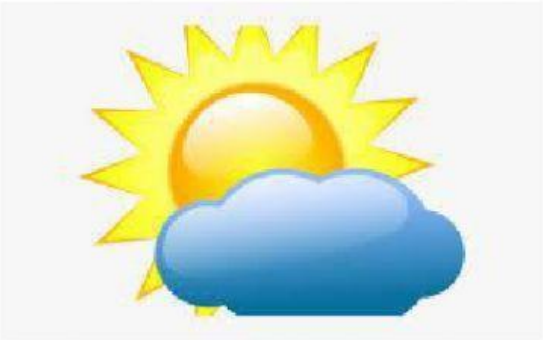
3) The polar zones of the Earth are far northern and far southern, near the poles. Is that true or false?
   a) True
   b) False

4) What climate zone is the white area in the picture?



a) Temperate Zone
b) Tropical Zone
c) Polar Zone

5) Temperatures in the POLAR ZONES are...
a) cold all year
b) always warm
c) warm in summer and cold in winter.



6) Temperatures in the TROPICAL ZONES are...
a) cold all year
b) always warm

c) warm in summer and cold in winter

7) Precipitations in the POLAR ZONES are...
a) heavy or little, it depends on the area
b) variable
c) little and in the form of snow

8) Which climate zone gets the least amount of precipitation?
a) Tropical Zone
b) Temperate Zone
c) Arid Zone

9) A continuously hot climate with an enormously high precipitation level is which climate?
a) Polar Region
b) Temperate Zone
c) Tropical Zone

10) What does precipitation mean?
a) How hot or cold a place is.
b) How wet or dry a place is.
c) How much vegetation a place has.