~ SEED GERMINATION ~

Drag and drop the words below to the correct position to complete the drawing.

Seed Coat	Embryo	Baby Leaf
Baby Stem	Food Supply	Baby Root

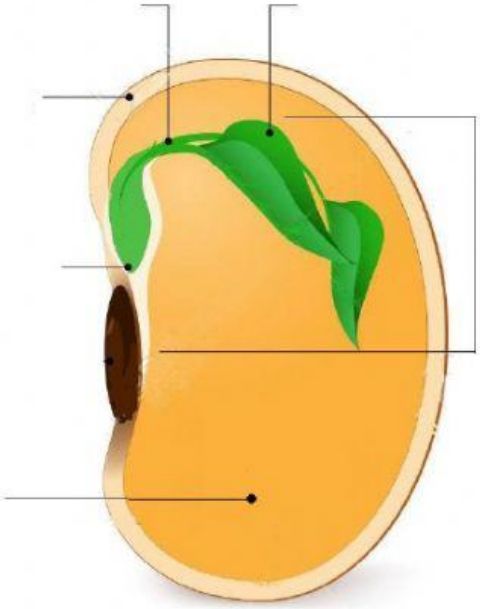
Outside



Inside

1. The process by which a seed grows into a plant is called pollination / germination
2. The embryo is also called a baby plant / seedling
3. The baby leaf, baby stem and baby root together is called the carpel / embryo
4. What are the conditions that affect seed germination?

   Moisture, wind, temperature, air, animals, sunlight
5. Which part appears first out of the seed and grows downwards? Roots / Leaves
6. The seed penetrates the soil and becomes a seedling / fruit