

TELL- TALE HEART BY EDGARD ALLAN POE

B READ PAGES AND FILL IN THE GAPS.

- 1 When the narrator was in the old man's bedroom he was carrying a
2. Theth night, he went to the bedroom again and when he to open the lantern , his slipped and made a noise.
3. The old man woke up and on the bed. He asked there was.
4. Obviously, the narrator said
5. The man had been Since the first noise and the narrator stood there silently.
6. In a moment, the old man made a noise, the noise of
7. The old man couldn't see nor hear the narrator but he could Him.
8. The narrator could hear how the beating of the old man's heart grew and every minute.
9. His time had!
10. The narrator pulled the old man to the floor and also the bed over him. His heart continued to but then it simply stopped.
11. Surprisingly, the narrator became angry and started throwing things to the floor, very(noise)
12. The narrator had to plan a way to the body.