

There is / are

1. Look and tick (V) the true sentences.

- | | | |
|---|----------------------------|-------------------------------------|
| a | There are some potatoes. | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| b | There's some bread. | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> |
| c | There aren't any tomatoes. | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| d | There isn't any lettuce. | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| e | There's some cheese. | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| f | There aren't any onions. | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| g | There's some tuna. | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| h | There are some grapes. | <input type="checkbox"/> |

2. Complete the sentences. Which lunchbox is healthy, a or b?

There are some sandwiches.
 There 's some cheese.
 There _____ some orange juice
 and there _____ some grapes.
 There _____ any chocolate.
 There _____ any crisps.

There are some crisps.
 There _____ pizza.
 There _____ tuna.
 There _____ tomatoes.
 There _____ lemonade and there _____ chocolate.

3. Choose four more items. Write about your lunchbox.

- a There's some orange juice _____.
- b There are _____.
- c There isn't _____.
- d There aren't _____.
- e There _____.
- f _____.
- g _____.
- h _____.
- i _____.

4. Read and choose the correct word. Tick the correct picture (V).

A: Are / Is there some / any tomatoes?

B: Yes, there is / are.

A: Is / Are there any / some tuna?

B: No, there isn't / aren't.

A: Is / Are there any / some cheese? b

B: Yes, there is / are.

A: Is / Are there any lettuce?

B: Yes, there is / are.

A: Are / Is there some / any onions?

B: Yes, there is / are.

A: Are / Is there any / some potatoes?

B: No, there isn't / aren't.

