Computers

Read and complete, then attach the pictures

1. You can use it to hear the sounds on the computer.

bluetooth speaker

2. It moves the cursor on the screen and you click it to select things. It is wireless.

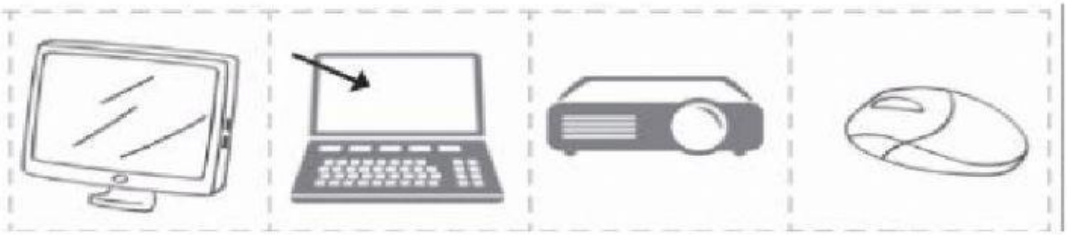
3. Use it to project documents, images, videos, or movies from the computer to a wall or board.

4. You can see the information on this part of a computer. It looks a lot like a TV.

5. You use it to type letters, numbers, and symbols. It is wireless.

6. You can use this to save information and put it on a different computer.

7. A device that makes digital copies of documents or images on the computer.

8. Use it to find and look at pages on the Internet.


9. The part of a computer that contains the screen.